

Envirotest, Ltd., an environmental consulting firm, is currently looking for a Certified Industrial Hygienist in our Houston office

Responsibilities:

Assess indoor air quality and perform asbestos sampling for commercial and residential properties.

Provide comprehensive-consulting services related to occupational health and hygiene.

Proficient at the preparation and review of written Health and Safety Plans and other associated reports.

Provide safety oversight and conduct safety audits in the field.

Candidates should be familiar with the planning, design, and implementation of solutions for site cleanup and the alleviation of damage caused by hazardous substances.

Performs other industrial hygiene functions as required.

Interact positively with clients and the public.

Requirements:

Excellent oral and written communication skills are required.

Ability to work in a small team or independently with a high level of initiative and energy.

Bachelor degree in science, health & safety, or engineering related field.

Interested candidates should send your cover letter, resume and salary history to:
Mail: Envirotest, Ltd., Attn: Human Resources, 3902 Braxton Drive Houston, TX 77063 or Email: ejames@envirotestltd.com or Fax: 713-782-3428

Envirotest, Ltd. is an Equal Opportunity Employer, committed to promoting a diverse workplace and drug free work environment. Pre-employment physical/drug/background screen required.